the creation of a Federal reserve raising a reserve, and was subject to of the Constitution under which the offigrave weaknesses, it was nevertheless a step in the right direction and far maintain that Congress by legislation superior to any system which placed reliance on the National Guard.

"There is, however, another clause of the Constitution under which the offigrave was never in the Congress by legislation can avail itself of the militias of the various States and control them as a

Without the adoption of a constitu-tional amendment placing the National Guard organizations exclusively under this minus clause of the Control and supervision of the Federal Government, they argued, it was futile to expect that any scheme of Federalizing the militia would be made effective. So long, it was pointed out, the control of the National Guard with the control of the National Guard with the clause of the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution must be abandanced as a host force or the Constitution and the Committee on the Constitution and the Consti ust so long would the people have to the militia officers and train the militia ubmit to inefficiency.

While it is true, they admitted, that "My own opinion is strongly on the under the present law the National side of the Secretary of War, and I be-Guard may be taken over by the Gov- lieve that the rank and file of the Nahat to leave the Government powerless o do this in advance of actual hostililes would result in a demoralization state thich in the event of a war against under first class Power would be disastrous and under readily appreciate, however, opposition in Congress that the Secretary's desk at the War ent is said to have lost money through the present system of expending $7,000,000 a year in providing equipment for the National Guard.

ating the value of Government prop-y which has been loaned to the Na-nual Guard organizations, but which, ling to the fact that the War Depart-the Presid to the fact that the War Departs the President the fact that the War Departs the President the Mestern trip about the need as to look to the State officials said on his Western trip about the need

$1,000,000 worth of missing committee.

placating members of Congress was bound to come."

"The Military Committee will stand that any officer seeking promo-was the difference in this respect Secretary Daniels, Mr. Garrimeasures Congress.

mbers in Congress in Favor of the Milks and tolls seperal bills, and in his successful battle in the last session put through his ship purchase bill.

Although members of the House were distributed in the last session and the House were distributed in the House were distribut tive branch in bringing about the reject

The President Thanked.

strengthening the National Guard were No Effect, Sava Chamberlain. of War. The House Committee on Military Committee, following the President in a formal manner by adopting a resolution authorizing Chairman Hay, nurser of the National Guard plan, to expect to the President its appreciation of the Military Committee to-day, where the President its appreciation of the Military Committee of the Senate or the Military Committee to-day. press to the President its appreciation of the broadminded fairness with which he is dealing with the preparedness problems and to thank him for his defence of the Military Committee of the House as disclosed in his correspondence with former Secretary Garrison. This action was taken in executive session when the hearings on the national defence question was not popular in the military committees of Congress, nor did it meet with the views of a majority of the cidentally commended the President's acceptance of Mr. Garrison's resignation of the differences over what should be done to build up the afmy, and as a matter of fact I think that the differences f War.

If W solute fairness so that the House may inderstand the fundamental differen-cratic members of Congress the feeling among the experts of the War Departthat the Secretary was fundamentally ment and among representatives here of the various national defence organizations was one of gloomy foreboding. actions was one of gloomy foreboding.

Admitting that the President had gained strength in Congress by his Government alone.

Sourse they frankly deplored the result "Whatever the original plan may have been, Secretary Garrison has long since expressed his willingness to abandon any preconceived superstructure so long as for the creation of a Federal reserve army, but as a surrender to political the fundamental idea of absolute Federal control is retained. Therefore the fend is inherently weak and notoriously inefficient.

Although army officers to-day were free to say that the continental army scheme did not represent what expert contains a surrender of the Constitution of the United States which authorizes Congress to raise and support armies.

various States and control them as federalized force.

Militia Clause Discussed.

"Under this militia clause of the Con-stitution the officers of the National state authorities, and so long as the doned as a basis for any citizens' army, esponsibility of selecting the officers for the reason that no legislation, no nd caring for the equipment was left matter how ingenious, can possibly and caring for the equipment was left matter how ingenious, can possibly to the State authorities, they insisted, nullify the right of the States to appoint > lieve that the rank and file of the Na-tional uard would be found on the same side if the issue were thoroughly understood. I believe that the average State militiaman would prefer to be under Uncle Sam's control absolutely and unequivocally without the possibility of any legal complication ensuing. Representative Dies declared that Representative Dies declared that the President had changed his mind on the make them vocal. the first to block any part of the Administra-the National Guard.

>
> f Congress, it is known, as subjected to pressure the ground."
>
> President had changed his mind on an equipment of a continental army, as question of a continental army, as the had changed his position countless times before after "holding his ear to the ground."
>
> The President as a result most popular and the continental plan an

The features of this report were outfined several weeks ago in an article in fine Sun, showing that at the present me the War Department has on its pooks approximately $1,000,000 reprenting the value of Government propty which has been loaned. remarked: "The resignation shows that Secretary Garrison does not believe that the President was sincere in what he a continental army."

Representative Bailey of Pennsylvania, also shown that in Texas three that officials were under indictive selling $30,000 worth of guns reproperty borrowed from the Representative Bailey of Pennsylvania, an anti-preparedness leader, said: "Mr. Garrison didn't resign soon enough. He did it gracefully, but too late."

Representative McKenzie of Illinois, a

War Department to the Mexicans across Republican, said: 'The resignation he Rio Grande.'

Secretary Garrison will have no effective to the secretary forms and the secretary forms are secretary forms. whatever on the plans of the Military of the House Military Affairs Committee Committee to build up a standing army, and prepared a bill for introduction in The Secretary was entirely too strong congress relieving the States of the obwas opposed by every member of Mr. Garrison was opposed to any propo-the time he was Secresition favored by the committee. He of War Mr. Garrison made no pre- was entirely too headstrong and a break his administration he let it be by the President despite Secretary Garhis administration of his repair.

his administration he let it be his his proposition. Said Representative Quin of Mississippi. "Our members were never in favor of a continental acts in stirring up the resent-tarmy or conscription. Both ideas origination his proposition hated with Mr. Garrison."

Mr. Garrison Mr. Garrison Mr. Garrison be position against the Philippine bill is apt to be of considerable political significance."

Chairman Hay of the Military Afe attitude of Mr. Garrison and fairs Committee observed: "I do not ecretary Daniels, Mr. Garridan think that the resignation will have any ds say, that enabled the lateries on the programme of legislation in the view that the State militia cannot be efficiently used as part of the national organization. I also agree that some form of compulsory service is required, but I think the President is right in not closing his ear to Congressional suggestion. It has been urged in the past that the President as leader of the party has been perhaps too instant in his views regarding legislamittee, said: "I am sorry the Secretary Daniels, they point out, has fol- However, one must look at the thing

Garrison's resignation because of their character. Members of the Senate real personal regard for him, there was no ized that Mr. Garrison was the most stemmt to conceal the fact that they took no small measure of satisfaction advocate of national defence in the Administration, and with the stimulus research. caused by his activity missing many of the continental army scheme by fear that the disposition will be to compromise on a plan which will not mean a very substantial gain in the reorganization of the army.

gard to the resignation of Secretary Gar-rison," said Senator Chamberlain, chair-man of the Military Committee, follow-hearings on the national defence question had been concluded.

The controversy was brought up on the floor of the House by Representative Barnhart of Indiana in conjunction with a resolution he offered proposing the establishment of a world court to settle international disputes. Mr. Barnhart incidentally commended the President's accordingly commended the President's accordingly commended the control of the differences over what should be set to differences over what should be advocate of preparedness, between Mr. Garrison and the Senate on lefence of the former Sections question could have been adjusted

A Blow to Administration.

Senator Weeks, another Republican

WILSON," SAYS GARRISON

Ex-Secretary Also Announces That He Will Not Be a Candidate for Presidency or Governorship-Out of Politics.

Lindley M. Garrison, ex-Secretary of Washington for that purpose, if his presence there should be desired. He declined to tell his plans, whether he would be desired. practice of law, said emphatically yes- practice law in this city or in New Jerpractice of law, said emphanically terday that he was through with polities.

The opinion among Mr. Garrison's almost unanimous that in

He announced with equal emphasis that he would make no campaign against the President nor will he go out in public and fight for his ideas of national preparedness. Neither will be permit his name to go forth as a Presidential or Gubernatorial candidate.

The ex-Secretary returned in the afernoon to the home of George Leary, ternoon to the home of George Leary, 1053 Fifth avenue, whose guests both Mrs. Garrison and he are, after a trip downtown. He greeted a number of reporters in the hall of the Leary home.

His eyes sparkled with good nature, S. Stantonal mistortune. Confidence in the hall of the Leary home.

Stantonal mistortune. There are trip in the home at Carranz yet, and the two could not be coalesced."

Stantonal mistortune. There are trip in the home at Carranz yet, and the two could not be coalesced."

Stantonal mistortune. There are trip in the home at Carranz yet, and the two could not be coalesced."

There are His eyes sparkled with good nature but when he was asked whether or not "Under no conceivable set of circum stances will I campaign against Mr. Wilson either on preparedness or any other issue. I have written and spoken my views on preparedness and those views can be found in a thousand dif-ferent places. I shall not continue to

No Pique, Says Mr. Garrison. "I want you to understand that there

emphatic gesture, "that there is any politics in my resignation. I do not care to be connected with politics in any way. I have served the public for twelve years, and all I want is to retire and Representative Kitchin, majority find some place where I can lay aside leader of the House, said: "It is very a little something for myself and my unfortunate that Secretary Garrison wife for the future. I think that I deleader of the House, said: "It is very a little something for myself and my unfortunate that Secretary Garrison wife for the future. I think that I deshould have resigned. I regarded him serve that, now that circumstances per-

"Will you be a candidate for

The former Secretary laughed "Well, perhaps, like Mr. Ford, should permit my name to be used, a that I am seeking law practice, so the I might get some advertising." he said ot seek advertising in that way. But shall not be a candidate for the Presidency or for the Governorship, and as for this fall I want it understood that paredness plans of the Administration which I have made public easily draw their inferences.

Mr. Garrison then mentioned that as offer his services in acquainting him |

Senator Newlands of Nevada, Democrat, said: .

"I quite agree with Mr. Garrison in

MILITIA BILL READY.

217,000 Men.

man Hay of the House Military Commit- H.

panying it as "a complete militia code"

"Those who have been closely ob-he favorable consideration of Congress."

It Provides for Citizen Army

Military Affairs Committee.

supplement the regular army."

citizens for militia service.

letting Mr. Garrson go the President was yielding to the so-called "little army men. Henry L. Stimson, ex-Secretary of War under President Taft, said: "Mr. Garrison has stood out bravely for the problem of army ref.rm during the whole of his administration and I regard his resignation at this crisis as a national misfortune."

of the committee on militia of the Na-tional Defence League, said: "I am very sorry that Mr. Garrison did not have a little more patience. I assume something more than appears

FIELDER FOR GARRISON.

lm to enter the field as a candidate for lovernor. Gov. Fielder, while deploring dr. Garrison's withdrawal, is hopeful etermination not to seek other political

But State, or with any of them so inclined.

break with the Administration, whatever didate

PROPOSES INDUSTRIAL PREPAREDNESS FIRST

Saunders of Naval Board Wants Plants of Country in Defence Plan.

President and members of Congress, C industries. We should not only have our industries correlated but we should also have all industries in touch with the Government, so that they may know what will be asked of them in times of war.

"When we take an inventory of the various industries, we on the Naval Board believe, the strength of the United WASHINGTON, Feb. 11 .-- On the heels of the resignation of Secretary Garrison and the discarding of the continental army plan the executive committee of to have the men in the works organized spoken in their approval of the resignation of his Secretary War. The House Committee on Milistrian Affairs took cognizance of the men in the works organized the National Guard Association made them in the works organized to have the men in the works organized to have them in the works organized to have them in the works organized to have them in the works organized to have the men in the works organized

The measure, framed along the lines of the defence plan advocated by Chair-

ice, is described in the statement accom- G. Ornstein. and not a "mere pay bill," the purpose of which is to establish "an adequate Judge Advocate Fisher Hits at and efficient force of citizen soldiery to Hatchison in Summing Up.

Lieut, J. O. Fisher, judge advocate, "Those who have been closely ob-serving developments at Washington," the naval board of inquiry investigatthe statement adds, "are now practically agreed that the federalization of the militia under an improved and uniform system is the only plan likely to receive the favorable consideration of Congress." the favorable consideration of Congress.

The bill aims to provide eventually a citizen army of 217,000 men enlisted in proportion of 500 for each member of proportion of 500 for each member of Congress in the House of Representation of the Edison company, was to biame.

tives in addition it proposes the estab-lishment of a junior guard made up of a militia between the ages of 12 and 18 years. If a State fails to maintain its liberty and a state fails to maintain its pletely. "He had left nothing undone in the way of his duty in connection with allotted quota of militia, the President, according to the terms of the bill, would be empowered to make a draft on its both those who were killed and the survivors, he asked that the board find The federalization feature of the bill that the deaths were not due to the care in the requirement that enlisted men carelessness or inefficiency of the crew

VERA CRUZ HEARS

ator Lodge's son-in-law. Mr. Lodge had been slated as one of the "big four" can-didates on the Weeks ticket. But he is a close friend of Col. Roosevelt and it is Obregon Man, an Anti-American, Replaces Aguilar as Governor.

CHURCH IS PERSECUTED

Special Cable Despatch to THE SEN VERA CRUZ, Feb. 11 .- The entire city

A force of marines marched through the streets last night and all day to-day and people at first rushed from their homes in alarm.

Carranza's Governor and former favorite, Gen. Candido Aguilar, was replaced by Gen. Heriberto Jara, an Obre-Carranza has not gone to Mexico city yet, and it is said here that he has no intention of restoring the capital to its S. Stanwood Menken, president of the National Security League, issued a statement, reading in part as follows:

"Mr. Garrison's resignation emphasizes the seriousness with which he research the issue of the statement of the conditions here grow worse. There are reports that Gen. Carranza has broken with Gen. Obregon and that there is friction between Obregon and other Generals.

Gen. Jara, the new Governor, in a multiplication of the conditions here grow worse.

Gen. Jara, the new Governor, in a tremely anti-American, and it was tional defence. His attitude is consistent with the views he has held for the uast year and has expressed privately to many friends."

Major Charles E. Lydecker, chairman ment is strong here.

Minister Luis Cabrera is back in Mex-to city. He has come to float the nev dock and started southward. For five hemp man of Merida, Yucatan, has been forced out of business in Mexico. During the last two months his properties been confiscated and his trade erests interfered with. Religious freedom is still a toke here. ien in Puebla and only one mass is said in Merida a week. The church there holds but 300 people and the popula-tion is 70,000, the majority Catholics.

MOVING ON OAXACA.

Carranta Columns on to Capture City.

day declared that three military column invaded the State of Oaxaca to and hold the city of Oaxaca for the ustitutionalist Government against Tehauntepec, Salina Cruz, San Carlos Yautepec, Placolula, Fochutti, Miahuat an, the greater part of Ejutla, Jamil can, the greater part of Ejulia, Jamil-tepec, Juquila, Zimatlank, Putla and the ports of Minizo and Puerto Angel." Oaxaca, the capital city, is held by 3,000 Zapata troops, who have estab-lished in the city and adjoining district conditions bordering upon socialism. The chief railroad lines however, the mounchief railroad lines, however, the mounroads, constructed a chain of block-houses and fortified their chief strong-holds with twelve cannon and a number of provisions into Oaxaca city. while the Federals are fighting Zapatistas are fighting the Federals and

Religious Congress Told That U. S. Citizens' Arrogance is Blamed, day o fits session.

As far as modern learning has proceeded in the South American countries, munitions."

W. S. Landis told of extracting nitrogen from the air. Other speakers were Capt. E. D. Ardrey, U. S. A.; Albert H. Hooker, William M. Grosvenor and G. Ornstein.

E-2 BLOWUP LAID TO EDISON CO.

Judge Advocate Fisher Hits at Hutchison in Summing Up. supported these statements in part, saying that in the United States interes in South American business and in re-ligion should go together. All urged the undertaking of serjous religious work throughout the Latin Americas. Resides by Daugherty the Rev. Har-lan P. Beach of New Haven and the also among the speakers.

NEW TRIALS IN ROAD GRAFT. County Are Set Aside.

Senator Weeks, another Republican member of the Military Committee, designation of the Military Committee, designation of Mr. Garrison will be ablanced as the ablance of the Military Committee, designation of Mr. Garrison will be ablanced as the ablanced of the Military Committee, designation of Mr. Garrison will be ablanced to the Administration. He is in the requirement that anisted member of the Military Committee, designation of Mr. Garrison will be ablanced to the approximate to serve the intervention of Mr. Garrison will be ablanced to the approximate to serve the single advocate's summing up the national defences than was

"NO PIQUE; I'LL NOT FIGHT CHIEFS NEAR BREAK, G. O. P. LEADERS LAUNCH BIG ROOSEVELT BOOM

by Representative Gardner, who is Sen-

"You might as well ask a man going to the Rockies if he intended going whaling," he said with a smile. "I have nothing to say," he answered known here that this friendship is as strong to-day as it ever was and that they have had several political conferences in the last year.

Lodge May Drop Out.

I have book. Look in the Lustania settlement. "I must refer you to my new book. Look in the index and you will see what I said at the time of the sinking what action should be taken in the matter. What I said was right

It is not likely that Mr. Lodge, who will be a candidate for reelection to the Senate they year, will enter a fight for a place on the delegation to the del by Mr. Garrison's resignation in con-nection with preparedness and our foreign policies discussed in my have nothing to add now."

Marforie Sterret, the little girl who wrote to Col. Roosevel to start a sub-Ex-Senator Crane is expected to lead the fight agains Roosevelt in Massachuscription for a battleship, was intro-duced to him and he exclaimed: "Three cheers for you. I usually can't find time setts. If Senator Weeks should be with-drawn for any reason the name of Gov. McCall probably would be substituted by to write letters in my own hand, but the Republicans who do not want to support Roosevelt.

There have been persistent rumors that Senator Weeks was contemplating withdrawal from the race, but he denied important thing as a battleship I simply have to find time."

Another caller on the Colonel was Capt. George MacDonald, who commanded the steamer Dacia when she was captured by the French, and who in these reports and his managers have attributed them to the malicious work of 1898 was in command of the transport which took Col. Roosevelt and his Rough Riders to Cuba. Col. Roosevelt had not seen MacDonald since that trip, but recognized him instantly and began to recall incidents of the trip in a way that Leaves Warning to the Nation in recall incidents of the trip in a way that just like the other workmen caused the captain to beam when he left ing why he arrived at work

Theodore Roosevelt, scorning the pro-Oscar Straus and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., were also on the ship bidding good-by. The Colonel went directly to the Guiana from the Hotel Latham, where he spent some time with Dr. and Mrs. Richard Derby, who was Miss Ethel Rooseveit. ection of an overcoat against snow and terday as she was warped out of her

The first stop is at St. Thomas in The first stop is at St. Thomas in February 16, then come St. Croix, which is reached on the 18th; St. Kitts and Antigua, on the 19th; Guadeloupe, on the 29th; Dominica, on the 21st; Martinique, on the 22d; St. Lucia, on the 23d; Barbados, on the 27th, and Demerara, on the 27th. Col. Roosevelt will any alcoholic liquor e resignation of Secretary Garrison Col. Roosevelt was chary of speech. He re-ferred questioners to his newly pub-lished book "Fear God and Take Your Own Part" for answers, albeit making the Lustania controversy.

"Always remember that if a man's wife's face is slapped and he talks about it for eight months it is of no Campbell and C. O. Campbell, who will sat. earthly consequence what action he then have a stateroom opposite; Prof. and takes," he said, head thrown back and Mrs. Henry J. Ford, E. W. Jewett, Alexteeth clicking as he shot forth his words.

There will not be much game for the mighty hunter this time, for the islands

The control of the might be much game for the mighty hunter this time, for the islands of the might be mig Kentuckian, in "Dry" Debate, Accuses Preacher of Hotel Escapade.

place on the delegation to Chicago. He has not been consulted about the plan

n Massachusetts to launch a Roosevelt

THE COLONEL SAILS.

weeks the Colonel intends to banish care and bask in the tropic sunshine.

tional, and the situation caused by the FRANKFORT Ky., Feb. 11 .- The Kentucky House of Representatives came machine guns. The Federals levy ibute on all who pass through their critery and have stopped all shipments the night watchman was attracted. It is Representative Harvey passed the lie that a reorganization is scheduled to make more comprehensive reforms.

LATIN AMERICA LOSING FAITH.

LATIN america Losing FAITH.

The convicted men are Henri P. Alexander, an optician; Harry Kramer, sec-retary of the New Hellenic Transatianof the Christian faith in Latin America was the prediction of the committee on survey and occupation in a report submitted to the Congress of Religious Work in Latin America here to-day, the second Herry W. Probst, a button manufacturer; Joseph B. Schwartzberg, a law-yer; Jack Levy, former diamond daylor. tic Steamship Company : Charles W PANAMA, Peb. 11.-A complete collapse | Boye, a Bronx real estate dealer; Frank yer: Jack Levy, former diamond dealer: Henry C. Ritzheimer of the Cleveland Sales Company: Henedict Radus, music publisher; Joseph Herzberg, real estate cased in the South American countries, the report asserts that practically universal disbelief exists, various cults taking the place of the Christian denominations from which a guardinate least of 129 Powell Constitutions from which a guardinate least of 129 Powell Constitutions from which a guardinate least of 129 Powell Constitutions from which a guardinate least of 129 Powell Constitutions from which a guardinate least of 129 Powell Constitutions from which a guardinate least of 129 Powell Constitution of 129 Powell Constitu Achilles Seraphic, connected with the South American Commercial Company The convicted men were remanded to the Tombs to await sentence this morning. The jury was out since noon Thi day and the trial lasted four weeks.

ONE DEAD, 20 TRAPPED IN MINE EXPLOSION

Rescuers Save Seventeen, but Fail to Reach the Other Victims.

All the Convictions in Suffolk men were trapped in the Jefferson & tant body which has announced that it All the convictions in the Suffolk at Ernest this afternoon by an explosion, vert the Jews. He said: All the convictions in the Suffolk county road graft case were set aside by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn yesterday in a decision handed down by Justices Jenks, etsion handed down by Justices Jenks, Standard O. Care, Mills and Rich. This

LEGISLATORS PASS LIE NICARAGUA TREATY TO CARRY A RIDER AND CLINCH FOR FIGHT

Senate Resolution Offered to Calm Fears of Other Central American Republics.

feller Foundation will be asked by the trade unions of the State, according to a statement made at a meeting of the Central Federated Union last night by Peter J. Brady, secretary of the Allied ference of Organized Labor on Educa-

A resolution submitted by Mr. Brady was adopted asking all unions to join in requesting Mayor Mitchel to remove Abraham Flexner and Raymond B Pos-dick from the Board of Education on the ground that they are Rockefeller representatives. An attack was also representatives. An attack was also made on Mr. Flexner by James P. Hol-land, president of the State Federation of Labor, for his failure at various times to urge higher wages for city employees. "The evidence against the Rockefeller Foundation will be submitted to a legislative investigating committee for the creation of which a bill has already been introduced," Mr. Brady sald, "and we shall not make it public until the hear-

RABBI ASSAILS PROSELYTING.

Jews Desert Religion.

The Rev. Dr. M. H. Harris, president of the Eastern Council of Reform Rabbis, said in Temple Israel in Harlem last night that conversion of Jews comes about when "a son of Israel, lacking character and wishing to earn a few dollars and not very nice as to the means, comes in contact with such an INDIANA, Pa., Peb. 11.—Thirty-seven organization." He referred to a Protes

This cause.

More than 100 men were at work when stons open to attract Jewish chile

WAR WON'T HIT U.S. IS EDISON'S BELIEF

Expects Allies to Come One Victorious in Two Years Because of Resources

WORKS ON 69TH BIRTHDAY

his broad chest a pa booze," and he laughed agfor yesterday morning the hea big plant that employs 600 to

"We're going to do so eral things I want to try got nine plants going on it, and we'r

'Oh, two years more I should

With that and the day

DANTELS DROPS 82 MIDDIES

DROPERTY for investment is always worth more it it has a "Spencer Heater." Is there any one thing about a building of more importance than economical and efficient heating? Ask your architect SPINCER III VILE CO . N. Y. Office, led Park !

